

The 100mm tail at the bottom of the artwork will transition into the hardware so should contain no important graphic elements. No other bleed/crop marks required.